

IHCDA Receives over $5 million in Requests for the First Round of CDBG Applications

August 1, 2006, the Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority (IHCDA) received 18 CDBG applications, requesting a total of $5,360,500.

IHCDA offers approximately $2.2 million, in the form of grants or low-interest loans, for the acquisition, development, rehabilitation or refinancing of housing that is affordable to low or moderate-income individuals. An additional $2.2 million will be awarded during the next round (deadline: December 1, 2006), for a total of $4.4 million in awards for the State fiscal year.

IHCDA Board of Directors will announce the round one application awards in October 2006.

Listing of the CDBG application information is available to view below. If your organization submitted an application and it does not appear on our list, please contact your Community Development Representative immediately at (800) 872-0371.
